Re.: Letter in Support of Precautionary Measures to Stop Imminent Deportations of Haitians from the United States

January 10, 2011

Dear Dr. Canton:

We, the undersigned human and civil rights advocates, write to express great concern about the recent announcement by the United States government to resume deportations to Haiti beginning January 2011. In the one year since the January 12, 2010 earthquake devastated Haiti, the United States has laudably set in place several humanitarian policies to respond to the catastrophe, including granting temporary protected status (TPS) for many Haitian nationals living in the United States, humanitarian parole for certain orphans, and, until recently, an indefinite stay of deportations to Haiti until conditions improve.

Far from improving, conditions in Haiti are equally bad, if not worse, than one year ago. A cholera epidemic is raging across the country. Over 100,000 people have contracted cholera and 3,333 have died as a result of the disease. The World Health Organization and Pan-American Health Organization expect another 650,000 cases within the first 6 months of 2011. Over 1.2 million people are living in temporary shelters in internally displaced persons camps. These people and countless others in Haiti lack basic sanitation, adequate food, potable water, and lighting, and basic security. Haitian detention centers, where deportees would undoubtedly be held, are widely-documented as unsanitary, rodent-infested spaces where detainees have little to no access to food or drinking water and are exposed to disease. Cholera has already claimed at least 48 lives in detention centers.

In light of these grim conditions, the deportation of Haitian nationals by the U.S. is inhumane and impracticable.

We therefore write to express our support of the request for precautionary measures submitted to this Commission on January 6, 2011 by the University of Miami School of Law Human Rights and Immigration Clinics, the Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center, the Center for Constitutional Rights, Alternative Chance, and the Loyola Law Clinic and Center for Social Justice to halt the roundups, detention, and imminent deportations of Haitian nationals by the United States government.
We ask that this Commission act decisively and quickly bring the full weight of its authority to bear on the United States Government, so that it will fulfill its legal responsibility to protect the rights of vulnerable Haitian individuals who are at risk of serious harm, even death, and who, if deported, will place an impossible burden on a detention and justice system in Haiti that is broken.

Sincerely,
