(U) Lebanese Reaction to Gaza Flotilla Violence. 31 MAY, Lebanese press: Thousands of Palestinian activists gathered in Beirut, Tripoli, and Sidon to protest Israel's interdiction of an aid ship bound for Gaza. Protestors burned Israeli flags, waved banners, and chanted "death to Israel." Lebanese political leaders firmly denounced the attack, calling it a "criminal act and massacre," and encouraged the international community to call an emergency meeting of the UN Security Council. Lebanese political groups planned an additional protest for 1 JUN to show solidarity with the Palestinians. Hizballah also released a public statement following the incident, calling Israeli action against the ships a "terrorist act that deserves international punishment." Analyst Comment: Lebanese political leaders and citizens are united in their condemnation of Israel. We expect additional protests to occur in the Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon. Minor security incidents are possible.

(U) Hizballah Announces Rally. 3 JUN, Lebanese press: Hizballah Secretary General Hassan Nasrallah called for all Lebanese and Palestinian communities to take part in a rally in Beirut on 4 JUN to show solidarity with the Palestinian people in Gaza and "all the heroes of the Freedom Flotilla." Nasrallah praised the Flotilla activists for demonstrating patience and steadfastness in the face of Israeli "attacks, piracy, criminality, killing, detention, and torture." Nasrallah announced plans for the rally while delivering a 3 JUN speech at a ceremony marking the anniversary of the death of Iranian Supreme Leader Khomeni. Analyst Comment: The rally will likely occur in the primarily Shia suburbs of south Beirut. While we expect a high turnout of Hizballah followers, the likelihood of violence at the rally is low.

Beirut Al-Manar Channel Television in Arabic at 1336 GMT on 3 June begins to carry live relay of a ceremony held at the Al-Risalat Hall in Beirut in commemoration of the 21st death anniversary of late Iranian Imam Khomeyni.

The ceremony begins by playing the Lebanese and Hizballah's national anthems.

The ceremony is attended by Hizballah officials including Muhammad Ra'd, head of The Loyalty to the Resistance Bloc; and Shaykh Muhammad Yazbik, chairman of Hizballah's Shari'ah Commission, as well as Hizballah ministers and deputies. Hizballah Deputy Secretary General Na'im Qasim was not observed to attend the ceremony.

The attendees also include Minister of Agriculture Husayn al-Hajj Hasan, representative of Lebanese President Michel Sulayman; Amal Party member Khalil Hamdan, representative of Speaker Nabih Birri, and Sports and Youth Minister Ali Abdallah, representative of Prime Minister Sa'd al-Hariri, in addition to a number of clerics and military officials.

The master of ceremonies then begins to greet the audience, glorifying late Imam Khomeyni and his personality and traits.

At 1342 GMT, Iranian Ambassador to Lebanon Ghadanfar Rokon Abadi takes the floor.

After hailing the late leader and imam, Abadi says that "we in the Islamic Republic of Iran stress our right to the full utilization of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes in order to achieve social and economic welfare. This is a legitimate right to all nations recognized by the laws of the IAEA." He adds that "neither intimidation nor sanctions" will weaken the Iranian resolve, noting that the world is dealing with Iran in "double standards" due to its adherence to its right to nuclear energy, while turning a blind eye to the nuclear arsenal of "the Zionist enemy," which did not sign the NPT treaty.

Abadi expresses solidarity with the Palestinian people in Gaza and calls on the international community "to adopt a strict stance against the state terrorism, embodied by the Zionist entity in its recurring hostile crimes." Abadi also reiterates Iran's support for Lebanon in the face of "the ongoing threats by the Zionist enemy, its continuous violation of Lebanese sovereignty, and its continuous occupation of parts of southern Lebanon." He stresses "the right of the Lebanese people to defend their honor, sovereignty, and water through their unity and rallying around their national right to assert their sovereignty over the entire Lebanese territories."

At 1352 GMT, Khalil Hamdan, representative of House Speaker Nabih Birri, takes the floor to deliver Birri's speech.

Hamdan hails the late imam and the Islamic Revolution, reminding of what Imam Khomeyni said to the effect that Israel "is a cancerous gland that should be removed."

Hamdan then attacks the Israeli attempts to Judaize Palestinian territories as well as Muslim and Christian holy places.

Hamdan says that such Israeli actions make every Arab person responsible for removing "this cancerous gland and absolute evil;" namely Israel.

Hamdan hails Turkey for dispatching the Freedom Flotilla, which was sent to save, rescue, and offer support for the people of Gaza.

Hamdan calls for lifting the siege on Gaza and fully condemning Israel. He praises the Syrian, Turkish, and Iranian stands toward the Palestinian cause.

Hamdan then hails the resistance in Lebanon, noting that "abandoning the resistance is tantamount to offering a free service to Israel."

At 1410 GMT, Shaykh Abd-al-Amir Qabalan, vice president of the Higher Shiite Islamic Council, takes the floor.

Qabalan hails the late imam and the Islamic Revolution, saying that the Islamic Revolution has been "a landmark of Islamic development."

Qabalan then quotes Khomeyni as saying that "Israel is a germ, or a cancerous gland; hence, we should control this gland by injections that prevent it from expanding and spreading."

Qabalan condemns the Israeli act of "piracy" in the international waters, expressing thanks to Turkey and the Islamic Nahdah [development] in Turkey for embodying Islamic ethics and dignity.

At 1419 GMT, Reverend Antoine Daw, secretary general of the Episcopal Council for Islamic-Christian dialogue, takes the floor to deliver Cardinal Butrus Nasrallah Sfayr's speech.

Daw begins by saying that the papal nuncio in Turkey was assassinated in reaction to the Freedom Flotilla, Turkey, and to the Christian-Islamic relations. He adds that "this struggle in the East is a Zionist struggle against Christianity and Islam."

Daw calls for renewing the national and Islamic unity in the whole world, hailing Khomeyni's teachings which called for boosting values, ethics, freedom, just, peace, and love among the peoples of the world.

Daw then condemns the Israeli "act of aggression against the peace activists aboard the Freedom Flotilla," who "braved death to remind the international public opinion of the need to lift the siege on the Palestinian people who have been besieged in Gaza since 2006."

Daw then praises the values of the Islamic Revolution saying that they are "humanitarian, civilized, and institutional values that uplifted the Iranian state to the level of important regional states that compete on the technological, informational, and technical levels."

At 1440 GMT, Hizballah Secretary General Hasan Nasrallah then starts to give a speech via a giant screen.

He begins by greeting the audience and glorifying late Imam Khomeyni and his personality and traits. He also offered condolences over his death anniversary to the supreme Iranian leader Ali Khamene'i, the religious authorities, and the government, president, and people of Iran.

Hizballah Secretary General Hasan Nasrallah

Nasrallah talks about the "achievements" of Imam Khomeyni, saying that the most important achievements made by him is "the revival of the set of divine, prophetic, Islamic, humane, and ethical values in the lives of human beings, peoples, and nations."

He notes that many people were "inspired" by the revolution, experience, and values of Imam Khomeyni in facing their "challenges, tyrants, and difficult circumstances."

Nasrallah adds that the imam "revived in us and in this ummah the culture of jihad, the culture of facing the tyrants and oppressors" and that he also revived "even the culture of martyrdom-seeking for the sake of the causes of our ummah and our sacred causes."

He notes that the late imam "held the tyrants and haughty powers, the foremost of which is what he truly used to call the great Satan, the US Administration, responsible for all the oppression, tyranny, deprivation, and coercion from which our nations and the oppressed and wronged nations of the world were suffering from."

Commenting on the Israeli attack on Freedom Flotilla, Nasrallah praises "the courage, steadfastness, truthfulness, sacrifice, and the high sense of responsibility expressed by all the participants in the Freedom Flotilla, which was bound to break the inhuman siege imposed on the Gaza Strip."

Nasrallah praised the activists for demonstrating "patience, steadfastness and firm belief in the rightfulness of they are doing" in the face of the Israeli "attacks, piracy, and criminality, killing, detention, and torture."

Nasrallah concludes his speech by extending an invitation to all the Lebanese, Palestinians, and all Arab and Islamic communities in Lebanon to take part in a festival in solidarity with the Palestinian people in Gaza and "all the heroes of Freedom Flotilla" that will be held on at 1730 GMT 4 June, during which he will give another speech.

OSC/JN plans to text the 29-minute speech by Secretary General Hasan Nasrallah at priority precedence to clear by 1500 GMT on 4 June.

OSC/JN will also be adequately staffed to cover his upcoming 4 June speech and file FYI/s as warranted including processing plans.

| (C) Protest Occurs Near US Embassy. 7 JUN, diplomatic reporting: Several hundred activists held a protest on 6 JUN related to the Gaza Flotilla incident. The demonstration was located ~2 km from the US Embassy, situated north of Beirut. Demonstrators waved Turkish and Palestinian flags, chanted anti-Israeli and anti-American slogans, burned Israeli and American flags, and called for an end to the Israeli blockade of the Gaza Strip. Four protesters attempted to circumvent the wire barrier set up by the Lebanese Armed Forces (LAF), but the LAF quickly detained them. Analyst Comment: (b)(1) |

2" (U: Lebanese political leaders quickly reacted to the May 31 brack boarding of the "Freedom Flotilla" bound for Gaza with statements condemning the act and calling for international action. President Michel Steiman characterized the Israeli action as "a marsacre that can be added to Israel's criminal record and its record of organized tenorism," whereas PM Saad Hacin described it as "dangerous and crazy" and called for an emergency meeting of the UN Security Council (Lebanon was Council president during the month of May). Nearly all political parties released statements condemning the raid as a violation of international law.

The Israeli media on 28 May continues to report on Israel's preparations for blocking the IHH flotilla that sailed out from Istanbul en route to break the siege on the Gaza Strip.

Armed Commandos Set To Intercept Flotilla, Cyprus Won't Let Ships Anchor

(Attachment not included: CMP20110426738011001.jpg) Haaretz map shows route of aid flotilla heading for Gaza Strip

Tova Lazaroff reports in right-of-center, independent Jerusalem The Jerusalem Post Online in English: "Navy commandos will board the nine international aid ships sailing toward Gaza City if they don't turn back and the commandos will be armed in case terrorists are hiding aboard, defense officials said on Thursday.

The ships are scheduled to try to break the Israeli blockade on the Gaza Strip on Saturday. They are carrying around 750 activists, including diplomats and journalists, as well as about 10,000 tons of supplies. Top IDF officers said on Thursday that the navy will not 'take any chances' if and when it boards the ships, and will immediately inspect them for explosives, including using bomb-sniffing dogs from the IDF's Oketz K9 Unit. The navy plans to board the ships if they refuse to turn around.

"The ships will receive a number of warnings from the navy as they begin to make their approach to the Gaza Strip, starting from a distance of about 65 kilometers. If the ships are commandeered, they will be sailed to the Ashdod Port, where the government has set up tents to hold the activists. The activists will be taken into the tents for identification and medical attention, and asked to leave the country voluntarily. If they refuse, they will be arrested and transferred to the custody of the Prisons Service and the Interior Ministry. Foreign Ministry officials will be present to handle the diplomats who are on board the ships, while representatives of the Government Press Office will be responsible for the journalists."

"IDF sources said the military was planning on not having to use any force during the operation but was prepared for any scenario that could develop, including the possibility that the ships have been rigged with explosives by terrorists. 'Until we are on board, we will not know for sure who and what are on the ships,'

a senior officer said. The operation will involve thousands of IDF and security personnel, including a number of elite units, trained in non-lethal crowd dispersion tactics that will be used, if needed, when boarding the vessels.

"Late Thursday evening, Cypriot officials assured Israel that Cyprus would not let the flotilla anchor near its shores, sail in its territorial waters or use its ports."

IDF Worried About Rioting in Holding Areas After Disembarkation

(Attachment not included: GMP20110426738011002.jpg)

Israeli Navy boats invite flotilla for cake and coffee "at Ma'asiyahu Prison" (Haaretz cartoon by Eran Wolkowitz)

Anshel Pfeffer and Yuval Azulay report in left-of-center, independent Tel Aviv Harretz.com in English: "Defense sources expressed concerns about rioting in the holding area, so this space will be off limits to the media.

There are also worries that the activists, to make it difficult to expel them, will destroy their passports and refuse to identify themselves."

Israeli Advocacy Group To Greet Flotilla With Own Demonstration

Zoe Pox reports in The Jerusalem Post Online: "The European 'Freedom Flotilla' making its way to Gaza bearing humanitarian aid and activists may have a surprise waiting when it reaches Israel's southern waters on Friday. Israel advocacy group StandWithUs plans to greet the European convoy with its own demonstration at sea. A fleet of privately owned Israeli boats will reave the Ashdod and Herzliyya marinas in hopes of surprising the European activists Friday at 1 p.m.

BT UNCLAS FINAL SECTION OF 2 QQQQ CITE OSC RESTON VA 403982

"The counter-flotilla ships will be covered in 'Free Gaza From HAMAS' banners and boat owners will wear bloodstained T-shirts, representing HAMAS's terror record. StandwithUs and individual donations will fund the demonstration. 'What the other anti-Israel flotilla is doing is ignoring human rights abuses and focusing on a fake situation, 'Michael Dickson StandwithUs's Israel director, told The Jerusalem Post Thursday. Dickson believes the European activists care more about hurting Israel than heaping the Palestinians in Gaza."

Complex System of Mideast Alliances Seen Emerging, Turkish Group Involvement Not Coincidental

Amos Har'el and Avi Issacharoff report in left-of-center, independent Tel Aviv Haaretz.com in English: "This will not be the first time the navy has had to take over such ships trying to make their way to the Gaza Strip, but this time the flotilla is larger than before. In previous cases, the government of Ehud Olmert allowed ships to enter the Gaza Strip. A year ago, under Binyamin Netanyahu, a ship was stopped by force and its crew was arrested and deported: This time the confrontation is expected to be larger, louder and will require more careful and professional handling under the guidance of the top military brass.

"In the approaching clash, the complex system of alliances and counteralliances of the Middle East is beginning to emerge. It does not appear to be coincidental that the Islamist governing party in Turkey is involved, behind the scenes, in dispatching the flotilla, in coordination with HAMAS in the Gaza Strip. At the same time it is doubtful that it is coincidental that the Israel Air Force held this week exercises with Greece, the traditional rival of Turkey, of the sort that two years ago were carried out mostly in Turkey.

*The flotilla is not expected to alter in any substantial way the humanitarian situation in the Gaza Strip. It is mostly a battle of public relations that is meant to strike a blow at Israel. Perhaps if Israel was less eager to confront the activists, some of the media attention would have dissipated. Had the flotilla been allowed in, HAMAS would have its day, and the entire affair would evaporate quickly.

*However, the basic problem faced by Israel goes far beyond this flotilla. The international community blames Israel for all the problems in the Caza Strip -- more of less. If in the West Bank the occupation is the source of all evil, then in the Gaza Strip the Israeli siege of the territory is considered to be the central problem.

READ AHEAD FOR ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR INTERNATIONAL SECURITY AFFAIRS

Meeting with MG Gadi Shamni, Israeli Defense Attaché Addressed as: General Shamni Tuesday, June 1, 2010, 1600-1645, 3C889

FROM: Colin Kahl, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense (ISA/ME)

Host: (U) You will host the meeting with MG Shamni (bio at Tab B).

Issues: (U) Shamni has requested to brief you on recent Israeli actions against the flotilla of six maritime vessels that were headed for Gaza, including Mavi Marmara, in an effort to break the blockade and to carry aid to Gaza.

Desired Outcome:

- (U) Convey that the U.S. will examine all of the facts before making a judgment about the situation.
- (U) Obtain additional clarification regarding Israeli actions.

Attendees: (U)

DoD: ASD (ISA) Vershbow; DASD (ISA/ME) Kahl; Brig Gen Mike Holmes; ME Director Pat Antonietti; Israel Country Team Eric Lynn and Dave Wiltse

Israel: MG Shamni; CAPT Yoram Laks (Israeli Naval Attaché); MAJ Oron Mincha

Recommendations: (U) Use talking points at Tab A, if desired.

Relationship History: (U) You last met with MG Shamni on April 27 at the SecDef-MoD Barak meeting. The DPAG, co-chaired by USDP and Director General Shani, will be in Tel Aviv June 22-24.

Background: (U) On Monday, May 31 Israeli Naval Forces (INF) interdicted six vessels with pro-Palestinians activists attempting to break the Israel blockade and deliver aid to Gaza. Israel instructed the six vessels to divert to the southern port of Ashdod where their cargo would be offloaded and it would be determined which cargo could be delivered overland to Gaza following inspection for weapons or dangerous material. Five vessels complied with IDF orders at sea and diverted to Ashdod. The Mavi Marmara refused.

- (U) Israel has been strictly enforcing its blockade of Gaza since 2009.
- (U) Before boarding the ships, the INF repeatedly asked the ships to divert to Ashdod and offered to transfer the cargo to Ashdod and then to Gaza.
- (U) After INF requests for the vessels to stop were rejected, elite INF units from Flotilla 13 were ordered to take control of the vessels. INF fast-roped from helicopters onto all six boats simultaneously in international waters at approximately 0400. The interdiction took place approximately 60 miles off Israel's coast.
 - (U) As the INF commandos fast-roped onto the Mavi Marmara, a riot occurred during which the commandos, armed with paintball guns and side arms, were attacked with knifes and beaten with metal pipes. In the ensuing action, nine activists were killed, several dozen wounded, and approximately six INF personnel injured. Israel has provided medical attention to all individuals who were injured.
- (U) The GoI has stressed the link between IHH (Insani Yardim Vakfi Turkish Humanitarian Relief Fund) and the Muslim Brotherhood who both emphasized clear action on the part individuals on Mavi Marmara to incite violence. Bulent Yildrim, head of IHH, said on May 30, that "We will definitely resist, and we will not allow the Israelis to enter here ... If Israel wants to board the ship, it will meet strong resistance."

Fallout: International condemnation has been swift and harsh against Israel.

- (C) Israel reports that there has not been a significant increase in activity on its borders or in Gaza. Two rockets were fired from Gaza into southern Israel today (Tuesday) and the Israeli Air Force (IAF) responded with retaliatory fire at the launch site. Some minor incidents have occurred including Israeli Arabs throwing stones at Israelis and an Israeli Arab protest is expected today. As of now, the West Bank remains quiet.
- (U) Open source reports that an air exercise that has been taking place in Crete with the Greeks has been stopped and the Greeks have asked the IAF to leave.

Issue Summary and Background:

Ship Interdictions En Route to Gaza

- (U) On Monday, May 31 Israeli Naval Forces (INF) interdicted six vessels with pro-Palestinians activists attempting to break the Israel blockade and deliver aid to Gaza.
 Israel instructed the six vessels via loudspeakers to divert to the southern port of Ashdod where their cargo would be offloaded and delivered overland to Gaza following inspection for weapons or dangerous material.
 - (U) After INF requests for the vessels to divert to Ashdod were rejected for two hours, elite INF units from Flotilla 13 (Israel's Naval Commando Unit) began an operation to take control of the vessels. As the INF commandos fast-roped onto the Mavi Marmara, they were attacked with knives and beaten with metal pipes. The INF soldiers were armed with non-lethal weapons, such as paintball guns and tear gas, and holstered pistols for self- defense. Israel claims the attackers were mercenaries who were looking for a fight and were equipped with gasmasks and weapons and several possessed large amounts of cash.
 - (U) In the ensuing melee, nine activists were killed, several dozen wounded, and approximately six INF personnel injured. Israel has subsequently released the activists on board following their arrest upon arrival to Ashdod.
- (U) Israel has stressed the link between IHH (Insani Yardim Vakfi Turkish Humanitarian Relief Fund) and the Muslim Brotherhood and claims individuals on Mavi Marmara incited the violence. Bulent Yildrim, head of IHH, said on May 30, that "We will definitely resist, and we will not allow the Israelis to enter here ... if Israel wants to board the ship, it will meet strong resistance." This warning raises the question of why the INF appeared ill-prepared to face such resistance.

| Shi | ip Interdictions En Route to Gaza |
| | (U) On May 31 Israeli Naval Forces (INF) interdicted six vessels with activists attempting to break the Israel blockade and deliver aid to Gaza. After INF requests for the vessels to divert to Ashdod were rejected, INF commandos attempted to take control of the vessels. |
| | (U) Inefficient intelligence led the INF soldiers to be attacked with knives and metal pipes upon fast-roping onto the Marmara. Israel claims the attackers were mercenaries seeking a fight, equipped with weapons and found with large amounts of cash. |
| | (U) In the aftermath, nine activists were killed, several dozen wounded, and six INF personnel injured. Israel has since released the activists upon arrival to Ashdod. |
| | (U) Israel has stressed the link between IHH (Turkish Humanitarian Relief Fund) and the Muslim Brotherhood and claims individuals on Mavi Marmara incited the violence. |
| | (U) An additional Irish flagged ship, the Rachel Corrie, was boarded peacefully on Saturday, June 5 by the INF and directed to Ashdod following its refusal to heed Israeli and Irish pleas for it to divert voluntarily. |
| | Sec. 1.4(b),Sec. 1.4(d) |
| | (U) Israel has refused a UN-led international investigation, but have agreed to international participation in their investigation, inviting David Trimble of Northern Ireland and Ken Watkins of Canada as observers. |
