TRESPASS AFFIDAVIT PROGRAM

• Interior patrol of private multiple dwelling buildings
• Building owner authorizes the interior patrol
  • UMOS must have building owner’s permission to patrol the building

• Be alert for person who may be engaged in criminal activity.
TRESPASS AFFIDAVIT PROGRAM

• Mere presence near, entry into, or exit out of a building enrolled in the Trespass Affidavit Program is not an objective credible reason to approach an individual.

• If an officer has an objective credible reason to approach an individual, you may approach the individual to ask:
  - If he or she lives in the building
  - If he or she is visiting someone in the building
  - If he or she has business in the building

• These questions can only be asked if they are related to the reason for the approach and if they are asked in a non-threatening and non-accusatory matter.
TRESPASS AFFIDAVIT PROGRAM

Based on answers to questions in an initial encounter, an officer may take measures to verify authority to be present in a building

- Inspect and return I.D.
- Request key to building or apartment
- Request apartment number where person resides or is visiting
- Communicate with building resident
- Ask person to call a resident

Individual may leave the building, unless officer has reasonable suspicion to detain; leaving the building, remaining silent or refusing to answer questions does not support reasonable suspicion

REASONABLE SUSPICION

• Reasonable suspicion is required to stop and detain a person. Under the Fourth Amendment, a person is “stopped” if under the circumstances a reasonable person would not feel free to walk away.

• A stop may only be conducted when an officer has individualized, reasonable suspicion that the subject is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a felony or Penal Law misdemeanor.

• An individual approached should not be detained and is under no obligation to answer questions unless you can articulate that you have reasonable suspicion to detain the person.

CRIMINAL TRESPASS

• If unable to verify authority to be the building, officer may instruct person that he or she must leave the building, and that refusal may result in arrest for Criminal Trespass.

• If still unable to determine authority to be in the building and person refuses to leave the building, officer make arrest, per P.G. 208-1 Law of Arrest
