[CONTINGENCY LANGUAGE IN THE EVENT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FLOTILLA INVESTIGATION PANEL IS RAISED: We take note of the report of the HRC?s flotilla fact-finding mission and will review it in due course. However, we again welcome the establishment of the Secretary General?s panel regarding the flotilla incident, which has the support of both Israel and Turkey. We reiterate that this panel is not a substitute for national investigations. We expect that the work of the Secretary -General?s panel will be the primary method for the international community to review the incident.]

suggested that the HRC's fact finding mission on the Gaza flotilla submit its findings to the Secretary General (SYG) as a means of eliminating this parallel track. DAS Fitzpatrick told that the U.S. does not support this parallel mechanism and believes that the panel established by the SYG and supported by both Israel and Turkey is sufficient. She warned that by sending results to the SYG, the SYG would be obligated to take the HRC's recommendations into account.

| Subject: | ISRAELI REACTIONS TO TWO HRC REPORTS |

1. (SBU) SUMMARY. During the week of September 20, the Human Rights Council posted two reports related to Israel, both of which will be debated in the HRC beginning September 27. The Tomuschat Committee's report, released on September 21, is a follow up to the Goldstone investigation assessing both sides' accountability efforts with respect to Operation Cast Lead. It contains some positive statements about the Israeli accountability effort and does not present recommendations to the HRC for further action.

The Israeli delegation in Geneva finds the report to be generally better than they expected. They are concerned, however, that the report questions the impartiality of the accountability process as a whole, and particularly concerned that it highlights the lack of investigation of Israeli civilian leadership as a problem. The report of the Flotilla Fact-finding Mission (FFM) is, by contrast, far worse than the Israelis expected: it concludes that the Gaza blockade is illegal and asserts multiple serious violations of international humanitarian law and human rights law (including torture) during and following the flotilla incident. The HRC will likely adopt problematic resolutions in response to both reports on September 30 or October 1. End Summary.

2. (SBU) TOMUSCHAT COMMITTEE REPORT. In March 2010, the HRC established a Committee of Experts, led by Christian Tomuschat, to "monitor and assess" domestic legal investigations conducted by Israeli and Palestinian authorities into alleged violations of international law contained in the Goldstone report. In addition to interviewing witnesses, victims, NGOs and experts, the Tomuschat Committee also reviewed the Israeli investigation reports, the report of the Palestinian Investigation Commission (PIC) and the reports of the de facto Gaza authorities (i.e., Hamas). While the report is generally professional, it focuses far more on Israeli investigations than the investigations conducted by the Palestinian Authority (PA) and was far more critical of the Israeli process. However, the report contained no recommendations for follow-up action and did not mention universal jurisdiction or the International Criminal Court, as the Israelis had feared. (See 10 STATE 82548.)

4. (SBU) In a meeting on September 24, the Palestinian Charge confirmed to Mission Legal Adviser that they will likely introduce a resolution calling on both sides to conduct independent, internal investigations in accordance with international standards, and calling on the High Commissioner for Human Rights to follow up on the implementation of this call. Such a resolution will be unacceptable to the Israelis, but will almost certainly be adopted by overwhelming majority.

5. (SBU) FLOTILLA FACT-FINDING MISSION REPORT. In June, the HRC established the FFM to investigate allegations of violations of international law in connection with Israel's May 31 boarding of the flotilla of ships carrying humanitarian assistance to Gaza. The FFM interviewed 112 witnesses and reviewed such forensic and medical reports as they were able to obtain, given Israel's decision not to cooperate with their work. The report concluded that there is sufficient evidence to support prosecutions of a number of crimes within the terms of the Fourth Geneva Convention, and that Israel violated obligations under IHL and international human rights law.

B1 1.4(B) 1.4(D) 8. (SBU) On September 24, the Turkish Mission introduced a resolution on the flotilla report for adoption by the HRC the week of September 27. The resolution does not contain inflammatory language and is considered by most Geneva delegations to be very restrained overall. It does, however, welcome the FFM report, endorse its conclusions, call for their immediate implementation by the parties concerned, and call for follow up reporting by the High Commissioner at the March HRC session. Post expects this resolution to be adopted by overwhelming majority. 9. (SBU) COMMENT. Post expects the September 27 debate on both reports, especially the flotilla report, to be emotional. There will likely be significant press interest in the flotilla debate and outcome, and we understand the FFM will host a press conference in Geneva September 28. Notwithstanding likely heated debates, the resolution texts themselves are likely to be moderate for the HRC -- though problematic for Israel and the United States -- and the mood between the Israelis and the Palestinians is generally good. The Palestinian Charge stressed that they have stayed far away from the flotilla issue, except to encourage moderation. Both sides know, based on past practice, that the United States is likely to call for a vote and vote "no" on both resolutions. B1 1.4(B) 1.4(D)
