Julie Norris, being duly sworn, deposes and says:
1. I am a sophomore at Fordham University majoring in urban studies and minoring in computer science. I submit this Affidavit in support of Petitioners' request for an Order of Judgment compelling Fordham to recognize Students for Justice in Palestine (SJP). I have

2. I first became interested in joining SJP during the fall 2016 semester, after I met Sapphira Lurie and Sofia Dadap. They told me about this new club they were forming which advocates for the rights of Palestinians and told me I should join.

3. I went to my first meeting in January 2017, shortly after Dean Eldredge vetoed the formation of SJP. Upon information and belief, an empty classroom was chosen since the group was not permitted to book a room in its name.

4. I thought joining SJP would be a good way for me to learn about the movement for Palestinian rights. I was raised in a suburban area of Maryland and had not heard much about Palestine growing up. When I moved to New York City, I started learning about other social justice causes and became more political. I realized that there is a lot you don't learn growing up in mainstream America. Most of my friends at Fordham do not know much about Palestine. As such, it became important to me to join this club and organize educational events so that all of us could learn more about this important issue.

Sworn to me this 19th day of April, 2017.
