Mr. Peter J. Barris
Chair, Board of Trustees
Northwestern University

Dear Mr. Schill and Mr. Barris:

In follow-up to our letter of March 27, 2025, we write to acknowledge Northwestern University for its willingness to cooperate with the Committee on Education and Workforce about our latest request for antisemitism-related documents.

We remain concerned about antisemitism at Northwestern University and its law school. However, given the Committee's ongoing negotiations with Northwestern University related to this antisemitism, we hereby withdraw the requests included in our March 27, 2025 letter to you; accordingly, no response to it is sought.

We expect to pursue other means of inquiry in coming weeks as part of Congress' oversight authority under the U.S. Constitution.¹

Sincerely,
