PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS
UNDER THE LOUISIANA PUBLIC RECORDS ACT

SUMMARY PROCEEDING

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Plaintiff, the Louisiana Bucket Brigade, who respectfully requests, pursuant to Article XII, Section 3 of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974 and La. R.S. 44:35(A), and other applicable law cited herein, that this Court issue a Writ of Mandamus directing the Office of the Governor and Matthew Block, Custodian of Records, to provide Plaintiff with public records in his possession. Plaintiff respectfully requests an expedited hearing within ten days of service of this petition as required by La. C. C. P. art. 3782 as well as La. R.S. 44:35(C), which provides that any suit brought to enforce the provisions of the Public Records Act “shall be tried by preference and in a summary manner.”¹

In support of this petition, Plaintiff states the following:

INTRODUCTION

1. The public records requested in this matter relate to issues of immediate, pressing, and significant public concern with local and national dimensions. As reported in local, state, and national media, the proposed Bayou Bridge Pipeline has been the subject of intense controversy and debate.² Likewise, the companies pursuing the project – Energy Transfer Partners (“ETP”),

¹ See also La. C. C. P. art. 2591, 2595.

Sunoco Logistics, and Phillips 66 – have been the subjects of extensive reporting and controversy, given their record of leaks, environmental damage, safety concerns, and, in the case of ETP, the controversial conduct of its operations in North Dakota during the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline (“DAPL”).³

2. In addition to concerns about ETP’s handling of the permitting process and pipeline construction, the company also contracted with TigerSwan, LLC, a controversial, private military contractor which urged a counterterrorism approach to pipeline protestors it described as “jihadists” and oversaw the work of other security contractors hired by ETP, while also liaising with local, state, federal law enforcement agencies.⁴

3. ETP also paid the state of North Dakota $15 million toward costs incurred in policing the “largely non-violent” anti-DAPL movement, a concerning and seemingly unprecedented move.⁵

4. In 2015, ETP and Phillips 66 formed a joint venture to construct the Bayou Bridge Pipeline, which would span 162 miles from Lake Charles to a terminus in St. James. The proposed route would have the pipeline running crude oil through 700 bodies of water, agricultural land, wetlands, the Atchafalaya Basin, and through Bayou LaFourche, the source of drinking water for surrounding communities.

5. The proposed project garnered intense opposition, exemplified by the fact that hundreds of people turned out for hearings conducted by the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Environmental Quality in early 2017 to express their opposition to the proposal.⁶ Diverse opposition to the project has continued since the hearings, and has included crawfishers and others living and working in communities that would be affected by the pipeline.⁷

6. Despite extensive opposition and ongoing protests of the pipeline project by people from affected communities and environmental justice advocates, the Louisiana Department of Natural Resources granted ETP a coastal use permit for the project.⁸

7. That decision is being challenged in court by people living in St. James who stand to be affected by the pipeline. Their suit is based, in part, on the grounds that the agency did not take into account the potential effects of spills on wetlands and drinking water, did not consider alternative routes and transportation methods, and did not follow the agency's own permitting guidelines.⁹

8. The project is currently awaiting approval by the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

9. Meanwhile, opponents of the pipeline in Louisiana are concerned about ever-increasing threats to their ability to exercise their First Amendment rights, through surveillance and targeting by both private corporations and local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.

10. While the aforementioned TigerSwan applied for and was denied a license to operate in Louisiana by the Louisiana State Board of Private Security Examiners on July 7, 2017, it is now appealing the denial of its license application and has retained the services of five lobbyists to undertake executive branch lobbying on its behalf.¹⁰

11. The company has been the subject of in-depth reporting and public criticism as a result of its controversial tactics on behalf of ETP.¹¹ Local reporting has noted that pipeline opponents are concerned that TigerSwan tactics are already having an impact in the state.¹² In at least one case local opponents of the pipeline were so concerned that "none agreed to an on camera interview to prevent security operatives from identifying their faces."¹³

12. A Louisiana sheriff who served as head of the National Sheriffs Association in 2016 has described DAPL protestors as violent and militant;¹⁴ and the Association publicly endorsed the Bayou Bridge Pipeline.¹⁵

13. In October, 84 members of Congress issued a letter to U.S. Attorney General Jeff Sessions urging him to consider applying domestic terrorism laws to pipeline protestors.¹⁶ In November, the Department of Justice promised to vigorously prosecute pipeline protestors who damage property in violation of federal law.¹⁷

14. Governor John Bel Edwards has publicly expressed support for the project, in the same terms and echoing the same reasoning of the company, i.e. that it is the safest way to move oil, despite the track record of the companies involved, and despite the visible and vocal opposition. The Governor did not point to any data to support this claim.

15. The Governor has so far refused to meet with opponents of the project who have made repeated requests for a meeting and urged him to request that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers undertake an Environmental Impact Statement.¹⁸

16. On July 20, 2017, pipeline opponents met with Matthew Block, the Governor's executive counsel and designated custodian of records, at which point they expressed concerns regarding the accident risk from the proposed pipeline, the company's safety record and the conduct of state employees. Despite a verbal commitment in the meeting from Mr. Block to follow up on these issues and maintain communication on behalf of the Governor, opponents have received no further communication from the Governor's counsel.

17. Pipeline opponents, including Plaintiff, are concerned about evidence of the close interplay between the companies at issue in this request and local, state and federal agencies on the one hand, and their own inability to access these same agencies while being maligned and sidelined on the other hand.

PARTIES

18. Plaintiff Louisiana Bucket Brigade is a non-profit environmental health and justice organization based in New Orleans that works with communities in Louisiana located near oil refineries and chemical plants. Plaintiff's representative and founding director, Anne Rolfe, submitted the public records request detailed herein as an agent of the organization.

19. Plaintiff is a "person" within the meaning of La. R.S. 44:31.¹⁹

20. Defendants are the Office of the Governor and Matthew Block, Custodian of Records. The Office of the Governor is a "pubic body" as defined in La. R.S. §44:1(A)(1).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21. This Court has jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus ordering the production of documents improperly withheld and to award attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to La. R.S. 44:35.

22. Pursuant to La. R.S. 44:35(A), venue is proper in this Court as the Custodian's principal office is located in East Baton Rouge Parish.

FACTS

23. On October 6, 2017, Plaintiff sent Defendants a written request for "any and all records related in any way" to two categories of information:

1) Any and all meetings between Governor John Bel Edwards and/or any and all other staff of the office of the governor on the one hand, and any and all employees, staff, and/or agents of Bayou Bridge Pipeline, LLC, Bayou Bridge Pipeline, Energy Transfer Partners, Energy Transfer Equity, Sunoco Logistics, Phillips 66, Phillips 66 Partners, and/or any subsidiaries of these companies, on the other hand.

2) Any and all communications between Governor John Bel Edwards and/or any and all other staff of the office of the governor on the one hand, and any and all employees, staff, and/or agents of Bayou Bridge Pipeline, LLC, Bayou Bridge Pipeline, Energy Transfer Partners, Energy Transfer Equity, Sunoco Logistics, Phillips 66, Phillips 66 Partners, and/or any subsidiaries of these companies, on the other hand.

See Plaintiff's Public Records Request to Office of the Governor annexed hereto as Exhibit A.

24. Plaintiffs' also requested a fee waiver on the basis that the "requested information is in the public interest” and that the information was being sought for “news gathering purposes” and not for “commercial purposes.” Id.

¹⁹ See Indep. Weekly, LLC v. Pope, 201 So. 3d 951, 953 (La. App. 3 Cir. 2016) (holding that "person" includes a body of persons, whether incorporated or not and that courts must presume that the reference to 'person' in La. R.S. 44:1 et seq "refers to not only natural persons, but to corporations or companies.")

25. On October 10, 2017, Tina Vanichchagorn, Deputy Executive Counsel in the Office of the Governor, sent an email to Plaintiff acknowledging the request and indicated they were “compiling the information requested” and would send it the following day, on October 11, 2017. See Office of the Governor Email to Plaintiff, October 10, 2017, annexed hereto as Exhibit B.

26. On October 18, 2017, Tina Vannichchagorn, through an assistant to Executive Counsel and Custodian of Records Matthew Block, sent a cover letter to Plaintiff to which she attached a small set of records, which consisted solely of seven pages of an email chain concerning the appointment of a Sunoco Logistics representative to the Bunches Bayou Protection Board. See Letter from T. Vanichchagorn to Plaintiff, October 18, 2017, annexed hereto as Exhibit C.

27. On October 20, 2017, Plaintiff sent a response to Tina Vanichchagorn, copying Matthew Block, expressing concern at the “extremely limited number of records produced” and requested that she “indicate what kind of searches were conducted.” See Letter from Plaintiff to T. Vanichchagorn annexed hereto as Exhibit D.

28. Plaintiff also underscored in that correspondence that the request “included records of meetings and/or communications with ‘agents’ of the named companies in addition to employees and staff” which would include lobbyists retained by such companies Id. Plaintiff went so far in the letter as to provide the names of three individuals registered as lobbyists on behalf of two of the companies named in the request and asked that Ms. Vanichchagorn confirm whether the Office would conduct a further search. Id.

29. On October 23, 2017, Vanichchagorn sent an email to Plaintiff confirming receipt of what she termed the “new request.” See Vanichchagorn Email to Plaintiff, annexed hereto as Exhibit E.

30. On November 6, 2017, Tina Vanichchagorn emailed Plaintiff indicating she had not forgotten about the request and expected to be able to send a response the following day. See Email from T. Vanichchagorn to Plaintiff, November 6, 2017, annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

31. On December 4, nearly a month later, since Plaintiff had not received any further correspondence from the Governor's office concerning the request, Plaintiff sent a follow-up communication which recapped the history of the original request sent on October 6, 2017, the follow-up correspondence of October 20, 2017, which expressed Plaintiff's concern about the extremely limited response and reiterated that the request included records relating to communications and/or meetings with agents – including lobbyists – for the companies listed. See Letter from Plaintiff to Tina Vanichchagorn, December 4, 2017, annexed hereto as Exhibit F.

32. In the December 4, 2017, letter, Plaintiff also identified two additional individuals believed to be acting as agents or representatives of companies listed in the request – former state senator Mary Landrieu, who has publicly acknowledged she is serving as a consultant to the project, and Randy Hayden, a lobbyist and director of a public relations firm, who has publicly urged support for the project as an industry spokesperson. Id. The Plaintiff asked that searches be specifically undertaken for those individuals as well. Id.

33. On December 7, 2017, Tina Vanichchagorn, emailed Plaintiff acknowledging receipt of the December 4, 2017, letter, and indicated that “[w]ith respect to your previous request, a response is forthcoming.” Email from T. Vanichchagorn to Plaintiff, annexed hereto as Exhibit G.

34. To date, Plaintiff has not received substantive responses to inquiries about the search method for the original request, which Plaintiff inquired about on October 20, 2017, in part to determine whether to bring this action.

35. The Governor's office has also failed to produce additional documents in response to follow-up correspondence, and failed to indicate whether additional records even exist and, if so, whether they are being withheld pursuant to statutory exemptions, within the timeframe set out in the Public Records Act.

36. Given the fact that Defendants have thus far made no claim or showing that the records sought are exempt from disclosure, and given the clear burden of Defendant to do so at a contradictory hearing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that an expedited hearing be scheduled within ten days of the filing of this Petition.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW
IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

37. Article 12 section 3 of the Louisiana Constitution provides that “[n]o person shall be denied the right to observe the deliberations of public bodies and examine public documents, except in cases established by law.”

38. The Louisiana Supreme Court has repeatedly applied and instructed a broad reading of Article 12 section 3:

Th[is] provision of the constitution must be construed liberally in favor of free and unrestricted access to the records, and that access can be denied only when a law, specifically and unequivocally, provides otherwise. Whenever there is doubt as to whether the public has the right of access to certain records, the doubt must be resolved in favor of the public's right to see. To allow otherwise would be an improper and arbitrary restriction on the public's constitutional rights.

In Re Matter Under Investigation, 15 So.3d 972, 989 (La. 2009) (emphasis in original) (internal citations omitted) citing Capital City Press v. East Baton Rouge Parish Metropolitan Council, 696 So.2d 562, 564 (La. 1997). See also, New Orleans Bulldog Soc'y v. La. SPCA, 222 So.3d 679, 684 (La. 2017); Title Research Corporation v. Rausch, 450 So.2d 933, 937 (La. 1984).

39. The Public Records Act, La. R.S. 44:1 et seq., implements this constitutional right and creates an enforcement mechanism to ensure the right is respected, protected, and fulfilled – not one that was intended to qualify or limit the constitutional right of access. See Shane v. The Parish of Jefferson, 209 So.3d 726, 734 (La. 2015) citing Landis v. Moreau, 779 So.2d 691, 694-95 (La. 2001); see also Treadway v. Jones, 583 So.2d 119, 121 (La. App. 4 Cir. 1990) (“The Public Records Law must be liberally interpreted to enlarge rather than restrict the public's access to public records.”) Indeed, “[t]he legislature, by the public records statutes, sought to guarantee, in the most expansive and unrestricted way possible, the right of the public to inspect and reproduce those records which the laws deem to be public.” Landis v. Moreau, 779 So.2d at 694 (quoting Title Research Corp. v. Rausch, 450 So.2d at 695). All doubts regarding public records under the statute “must be resolved in favor of the right of access.” Id.

40. Pursuant to La. R.S. 44:35(A), after five days, a person who has been denied the right to inspect or copy records, either by the agency’s final determination or by the passage of time, may institute expedited proceedings for the issuance of a writ of mandamus and attorney’s fees and costs.

41. Moreover, not “just any answer” to a records request will be sufficient to avoid civil penalties if the response is inadequate and the failure to respond adequately is unreasonable and arbitrary. Indep. Weekly, LLC v. Pope, 201 So. 3d 951, 959-961 (La. App. 3 Cir. 2016).

42. Pursuant to La. R.S. 44:35(C), any lawsuit instituted to enforce the right to access public records must be "tried by preference and in a summary manner."²⁰

43. The Office of the Governor, and its Custodian of Records, Matthew Block, have failed to adequately respond to Plaintiff's public records request for more than two months, well beyond the timeframe provided for in the statute.

44. Plaintiff endeavored to clarify and narrow the issues so as to avoid litigating the request but has received no further records or response and is within its rights to bring this action.

45. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff respectfully requests that an expedited hearing be scheduled within ten days of the filing of this Petition.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays:

1. That a writ of mandamus be issued directing Defendant to disclose the records requested, or show cause why they should not be ordered to do so;
2. For an award of attorney's fees, costs, damages, and civil penalties, as provided by law.

RE: Louisiana Public Records Request

Dear Ms. Vanichchagorn:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter responding to our Public Records Request.

We are concerned at the extremely limited number of records produced in response to this request and would ask that you indicate what kind of searches were conducted in fulfillment of this request. Further, we take your response to mean that no responsive records have been withheld pursuant to any claimed exemptions. If this is not correct, please advise us of the basis for withholding any responsive records.

We want to underscore that the request included records of meetings and / or communications with “agents” of the named companies in addition to employees and staff. “Agents” includes lobbyists retained by such companies.

For purposes of this request, lobbyists and the companies they represent include:

- Energy Transfer Equity: Thomas Evenden Williams
- Phillips 66: Robert H. Baumann
- Phillips 66 Company: David A. Cagnolatti

Please confirm that you will conduct another search for relevant, responsive records of communications or meetings with these lobbyists for these companies.

Thank you in advance,

 12.4.17 Follow up request from La Bucket Brigade.pdf
149K

December 4, 2017

Dear Ms. Vanichchagorn:

I am writing to follow-up on the status of our October 6, 2017, public records request.

As you'll recall, our initial request sought copies of all records related to:

- Any and all meetings between Governor John Bel Edwards and/or any and all other staff of the office of the governor on the one hand, and any and all employees, staff, and/or agents of Bayou Bridge Pipeline, LLC, Bayou Bridge Pipeline, Energy Transfer Partners, Energy Transfer Equity, Sunoco Logistics, Phillips 66, Phillips 66 Partners, and/or any subsidiaries of these companies, on the other hand.
- Any and all communications between Governor John Bel Edwards and/or any and all other staff of the office of the governor on the one hand, and any and all employees, staff, and/or agents of Bayou Bridge Pipeline, LLC, Bayou Bridge Pipeline, Energy Transfer Partners, Energy Transfer Equity, Sunoco Logistics, Phillips 66, Phillips 66 Partners, and/or any subsidiaries of these companies, on the other hand.

On October 20, 2017, we sent correspondence to your office in which we expressed concern at the extremely limited number of records produced in response to the request and asked for information about the searches conducted. We also drew your attention to individuals acting as lobbyists for two of the companies listed in the initial request and asked for a further search using that information.

We appreciated your acknowledgement of receipt of our communication and understood that you were undertaking a search.

As we have not received an update since November 6, 2017, we want to bring to your attention two more individuals who we believe have acted as agents or employees in connection with Bayou Bridge Pipeline LLC and/or Energy Transfer Partners and would ask that your search include records of communications or meetings with these individuals:

- Mary Landrieu, who has stated publicly she serves as a "consultant" to the Bayou Bridge Pipeline project and has participated in public hearings as a representative on behalf of Energy Transfer Partners;¹

- Randy Hayden, a lobbyist, media consultant and industry spokesperson²

We believe that a full and thorough search for records concerning meetings and communications with these categories of persons would have yielded more than one email chain about an appointment of a Sunoco employee to a levee protection board.

We ask that you produce any additional records, including records of any meetings or communications with the individuals listed above and in our October 20th letter, or affirmatively confirm if no such records exist, within five business days.

Thank you.
